For this issue #EE 10 we are not following our usual award system since we are in the process of selecting interesting ideas for CDM and at the same time encourage a wide audience in industry to understand CDM. We will award a finders fee of Rs 20,000 per project idea if we take your proposal further and prepare a PDD for it under CDM. We are presently looking for another 30 interesting projects, which we will support through the project cycle of approval by DNA and CDM Executive board.

Please submit the papers to Idea@energymanagertraining.com.
